

250 years of Robert Burns

Sunday 25th January

Come celebrate Burns night at the Marwood Bar open as usual with Live music from 8.00pm Or join us in the restaurant for a Five course Scottish feast

M e n u

Sunday 25th January
7.30pm

Canapés:

Potted Shetland salmon, fennel butter and hot toast Crispy pork belly with apple chutney

oOo

Traditional cock-a-leekie soup and homemade bread

oOo

Ham hough terrine, warm potato and chive salad

oOo

Homemade haggis, neeps and tatties, whisky and peppercorn sauce

oOo

Old fashioned baked stuffed apple, honey ice cream and warm butterscotch sauce

5 courses £29.50

On Sunday January 25th the Marwood is hosting a five course set menu in celebration of Robert Burns

The evening will commence with canapés and live folk music followed by four individual courses.

Space for this event is at a premium and places are strictly limited and available by reservation only,

Please speak to a member of staff or call 01905 330460 to reserve your table